2	GOSW Report
	Dr Arthur explained exception reports are low and coming through steadily. Dr Arthur has had a couple of direct queries come through, one being about personal study time. Dr Arthur confirmed he would expect personal study time to be given as a block of 4 hours unless discussed between the registrar and educational supervisor. OL advised no issues have been raised. Dr Arthur advised non-residential on calls are coming up regularly especially for Public Health, there are ongoing discussions with the BMA and progress is being made.	N/A	N/A
	BMA Update
	OL advised, since the 22% pay rise deal was announced, that the BMA have an ongoing referendum and resident doctors are being encouraged to participate. OL urges registrars who have not yet voted, to read all the information and vote before the deadline. OL confirmed that the BMA recommend acceptance.	N/A	N/A
